To Hiring Manager

Dear Hiring Manager, please accept my attached resume as an application for the position of Software Developer that was advertised on your website on March 21, 2020. I consider myself an excellent candidate for the following reasons:

I offer the following highlights to display my achievements and reinforce my abilities:
As a graduated from Computer Programmer Analyst at George Brown College, I have developed through experience using Java and Machin learning(python). My program has required several group projects which have developed my communication skills and improved my ability to work well with other software developers.

I look forward to speaking with you more about my qualifications. Thank you for your consideration. I can be contacted at (416)858-1030 or at Elham.salmanian@gmail.com.

Sincerely,
Elham Salmanian
